

INTERNATIONAL MARITIME LECTURERS' ASSOCIATION 2021
JOINT CONFERENCE WITH ICERS15, IMEC32 AND INSLC21

SEAS OF TRANSITION: SETTING A COURSE FOR THE FUTURE

8 - 10 SEPTEMBER 2021, ONLINE

The World Maritime University is pleased to host this unique virtual event that brings together, for the first time, the International Maritime Lecturers' Association (IMLA) with all three of its Special Interest Groups: International Conference on Engine Room Simulators (ICERS), International Maritime English Conference (IMEC), and International Navigation Simulator Lecturers' Conference (INSLC). The Conference will provide an opportunity for interdisciplinary discussion and exchange of ideas on issues facing maritime education and training (MET) in the present era of rapid change in the global maritime community, with a view to harnessing the past to navigate the future.

GLOBAL PARTICIPANTS

Maritime lecturers, maritime institute administrators and policy makers and anyone with an interest in Maritime Education and Training (MET)

CALL FOR PAPERS & KEY DATES

Deadline of submission for Abstracts: Closed (authors of abstracts accepted for the postponed 2020 Conference are invited to submit full papers)

Deadline of submission for Full Papers: 15 June 2021

IMLA & SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

For more information and to register visit www.wmu.se/imla2021

Recognizing that all the goals are interrelated and indivisible, the conference is a call for action in support of achieving, in particular, Goal 4 focused on quality education.

The World Maritime University (WMU) in Malmö, Sweden is established within the framework of the International Maritime Organization, a specialized agency of the United Nations. The mission of WMU is to be the world centre of excellence in postgraduate maritime and oceans education, professional training and research, while building global capacity and promoting sustainable development. WMU's vision is to inspire leadership and innovation for a sustainable maritime and oceans future. WMU is an organization by and for the international maritime community and is committed to the United Nations 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda.